

DataMind AI – Employee Handbook

1. Working Hours

Employees normally work from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday through Friday. The standard lunch break is from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM. Teams may adjust working hours when business requirements require it.

2. Leave Policy

Employees receive 24 days of annual leave per calendar year. Employees should submit planned leave requests at least 3 working days in advance. For emergencies, the employee should inform their manager as soon as reasonably possible.

3. Remote Work

Employees may work remotely up to 3 days per week, subject to team and project requirements. Employees working remotely must remain available during core working hours and attend scheduled meetings.

4. Learning and Development

Each employee receives an annual learning allowance of $25,000. The allowance can be used for approved technical courses, certifications, conferences, and books.

5. Travel Policy

Business travel must be approved by the employee's manager before booking. Employees should use the company's approved travel portal where available. Reasonable hotel and transportation expenses are reimbursable when supported by receipts.

6. Expense Reimbursement

Approved business expenses should normally be submitted within 15 days of the expense date. Expense claims should include receipts and a short description of the business purpose.

7. Information Security

Employees must not share company credentials, API keys, passwords, or confidential documents with unauthorized individuals. Company information should only be stored in approved systems.

8. Equipment

Employees are responsible for taking reasonable care of company-provided laptops and accessories. Lost or damaged equipment should be reported to IT as soon as possible.
